

LRG Capital Announces Investment in OM Records

Larkspur, CA, December 31, 2006 -- LRG Capital Group is pleased to announce the closing of an investment in OM Records. The investment consists of a four year secured convertible note for financial restructuring and company working capital.

The San Francisco based OM Records was founded in 1995 and has built its reputation on the idea of "future music." The company strives to push the boundaries of underground music and DJ culture, and seeks out and releases music which is progressive and consistently solid.
