
KIMBERLY LYNCH, MBA
Vice President, Corporate Advisory Group

Ms. Lynch has over 15 years of investment banking experience which includes an extensive background in capital markets, mergers and acquisitions, and strategic corporate partnership transactions.

Most recently as president and founder of KTL Consulting, Ms. Lynch advised companies in the software and consumer products sectors on acquisitions, financing strategies, valuation, and financial due diligence. She advised Informatix, Inc. on its acquisition of Tier Technology's GBPO business unit. Previously, as a Vice President of Merriman Curhan Ford & Co.'s investment banking group, she was responsible for securing and executing equity and debt financings, as well as merger and acquisition transactions, for fast growing health care, technology, media and gaming companies. She led and completed transactions for Redback Networks, Tut Systems, Secured Services, Aastrom Biosciences, and National Lampoon.

Ms. Lynch has extensive Latin America and emerging markets experience. She served as Director of Business and Corporate Development for Yahoo!'s Latin America division where she built key strategic partnerships with leading travel, ISP, wireless, and credit card companies. She also advised Latin American governments and corporate clients in the Debt Capital Markets division of Lehman Brothers in NYC.

Ms. Lynch received her M.B.A from Dartmouth College in 1995 and a B.A. from Colby College in 1988.